

Mobile Intensive Care Nurse (MICN) Re-accreditation

EFFECTIVE December 21, 2018

The Mobile Intensive Care Nurse (MICN) Re-accreditation program is a four (4) hour training program for MICN personnel in need of re-certification. The course of instruction is designed to provide students with progressive education regarding MICN practices and local EMS System changes within Kern County.

The course provides a detailed overview of the current status and future objectives of the EMS system, Paramedic Scope of Practice/Protocol changes and trends, progressive information related to EMS system quality assurance, Kern County Medical Communications System, and Kern County Med-Alert System.

The course is concluded with the MICN accreditation examination. Upon completion and meeting basic MICN re-accreditation application requirements, the individual will receive another MICN accreditation card which is valid for two years. Four (4) BRN continuing education contact hours are issued for completion.
